

The Tibet Fund

Dear Friends,

Tashi Delek! In this season of Thanksgiving, on behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of The Tibet Fund, I express my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for your support. Each year we strive to make a difference in the lives of thousands of Tibetan refugees living in settlements across India, Nepal and Tibetans in Tibet. Your generosity has enabled us to carry out initiatives focusing on health, education, cultural preservation, humanitarian assistance, economic and community development of Tibetan communities and refugees in exile.

This year, through your generosity we supported a wide range of projects: provided scholarships, renovated schools in remote areas, hosted medical, dental and eye camps; built elderly homes, rehabilitation center, and residential homes; provided disaster relief assistance to Tibetans affected by massive fire and severe drought resulting in economic loss; help sponsor monks, nuns, elders, and school children; improved water and sanitation infrastructures in Tibetan settlements; continued our commitment to help rebuild the communities impacted by the 2015 earthquake in Nepal; and initiated the Tibetan Civil Society and Community Empowerment Program with a goal to empower local leaders to create sustainable organizations for the advancement of Tibetan communities. This is just a small glimpse of what we were able to accomplish this year with your help and support.

Although we have made significant contributions, challenges remain ahead and we request you to join us to continue investing into the Tibetan people and community. Your year-end gift will help to improve the lives of Tibetans throughout India, Nepal and Tibet. Please act now to bring the gift of hope and happiness and some holiday cheer to Tibetan families in need.

We are a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. As such, your gifts are tax-deductible. For more information, please visit our website at www.tibetfund.org and follow us on Facebook and Instagram to stay up to date on our upcoming events and programs.

The Tibet Fund wishes you and your loved ones a Happy Thanksgiving and furthermore extend our deepest gratitude for your continued generosity, love and compassion towards the Tibetan community.

Best wishes,
